Brand new digitalised branch design

To enhance customer experience through constantly upgrading branch designs and facilities, the Group has established the industry's first fully-digitalised branch in LOHAS Park, where the "digital property management system" has been adopted for the first time. The system is directly connected to a 100-inch "holographic screen" which, together with other screens in the branch, will display the real-time property information within one minute after it has been uploaded to the database, thus allowing the branch to provide customers with timely, comprehensive information while being completely "paperless".

Chairman's Statement

Business Review

Midland Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") announces that for the year ended 31 December 2020, it recorded a profit attributable to equity holders of approximately HK$132 million (2019: loss attributable to equity holders amounted to approximately HK$69 million).

The turnaround of the Group's results during the reporting period was mainly attributable to: (1) increase in operating profit (without taking into account the subsidy under the Employment Support Scheme of the Hong Kong Government) of our business under the brand name "Midland Realty 美聯物 業" for the year ended 31 December 2020 as compared with 2019. The improvement in the results of "Midland Realty 美聯 物業" was attributable to (a) the increase in its market share in Hong Kong especially the secondary residential market; and (b) the improvement in resources allocation which enhanced operational efficiency; and (2) the receipt of subsidy under the Employment Support Scheme of the Hong Kong Government.

Stable Property Price Showed Market Resilience

Despite the double blow of social tension in the beginning of 2020 and the COVID-19 pandemic, home prices in Hong Kong remained stable in 2020, proving the resilience of the Hong Kong residential property market. In early 2020, Hong Kong experienced its first COVID-19 outbreak, prompting developers to put new launches on hold, which stunted new home market transactions and resulted in the secondary market transaction volume to shrink considerably. However, as the pandemic subsided, property prices bottomed out in late April 2020 and the Midland Property Price Index had risen by around 4% as of July 2020.

At the beginning of 2020, the home market ground to a halt during the first wave of the pandemic in Hong Kong. Across the second and third waves of the pandemic, transaction activities continued to be affected by the number of infected cases. Yet, the property market has remained intact in the latest wave of the pandemic, a sign that the market has digested most of the adverse impact of the pandemic and an indication of its strong foundation.

Multiple Factors Improved Market Sentiment

After the sharp deterioration in the global economy in the first half of 2020, there were signs of gradual improvement in the second half, especially in Asia where the recovery progress was the most satisfactory. For instance, the most remarkable economic recovery has been in Mainland China and its stable economic conditions greatly shored up the confidence of the Hong Kong people. Moreover, the global ultra-low interest rate environment is also favorable to the market. In late August 2020, the US Federal Reserve Board announced a major policy shift that allowed inflation to run above 2% before lifting the rates. The market has expected the interest rate to stay low for a considerable period of time.

During the reporting period, new home supply in Hong Kong was limited, which proved to be a favourable factor for the market. Due to the overall weak market sentiment in the first half of 2020, developers held off new project sales and focused on clearing up inventories instead. They speeded up the pace of new launches only when the market stabilised in the second half of the year. Some developers managed to raise the price when they launched subsequent batches and the response remained warm, indicating that the underlying demand for new homes was strong. Meanwhile, the government's decision to shelf the imposition of vacancy tax on new flats provided further relief to the primary home sector.

The government's housing policies have also proved beneficial to the secondary property market. The relaxation of the mortgage insurance programme by the government continued to boost demand for secondary residential properties. According to the figures from the Land Registry, the registration volume of secondary residential property sales in 2020 recorded a 15.2% growth compared with the same period in 2019, outperforming the primary residential property market. Benefitting from the policies, transactions of secondary properties worth between HK$6 million to HK$10 million surged.

Taking a Positive View and Seizing the Chance to Optimize

From 2019 to 2020, the Hong Kong property market suffered the triple blow of the China-US trade war, the social movement, and the COVID-19 pandemic, which struck the Hong Kong economy hard. Yet the Group displayed exceptional management capability and adaptability in this difficult time. In the face of crises, the Group's management rode the tide, refined its strategy and optimised talent utilisation, as well as raised productivity, lowered operating costs and achieved significant progress in several areas:

- Senior management pay cut showed solidarity: I took the lead in taking a pay cut of 40% for three months. All Executive Directors had salary reductions, and senior management took a pay freeze in order to join hands with our employees in this fight and riding out the difficult times together;
- (2) Promoted talent and strengthened management: The Group adhered to the philosophy of talent management based on capability, reassigned frontline and supporting management teams according to their productivity and leadership in order to raise the operating efficiency of the production line. We have successfully captured market opportunities during the downturn caused by the pandemic;
- (3) Restructured branch network and sought rent reduction: The Group realigned the branch network by continuously relocating inefficient branches. Rental reduction negotiations bore fruit, with overall rental expenses registering a drop of 8.5%. Local tenancies renewed last year saw their rents reduced by an average of around 30%. The Group has been actively considering relocating or closing those branches that were not granted rental reduction, maximizing the effectiveness of rental expenses;
- (4) Operating as usual in the pandemic: A "Pandemic Response Team" was formed to devise response mechanism and infection control measures, and shift and work-from-home rosters were implemented. Various work related technology and applications were introduced and infection prevention equipment was provided. Online meeting and mobile working solutions were promoted to ensure the Group's smooth operation during the height of the pandemic; and Invested in technology and optimised network: The (5) Group increased allocation of resources to develop real estate technology and improve the virtual property tour experience. The Group was the first in the industry to have agents making videos to show the properties, and then the rest of the industry followed suit. We constantly optimised our website and mobile application, and added virtual reality (VR) and augmented reality (AR) property tour videos, which facilitated transactions in the pandemic. During the reporting period, the Group raised its advertising and promotion expenses by 20% in response to market conditions, utilising promotions on online platforms to fine tune sales pitches. The Group's positive results were testament to the effectiveness of this investment.

Outlook

Gradual Market Improvement and Strong Response

The property market started on a high note in the beginning of 2021. The Group is cautiously optimistic about the industry outlook for the year ahead. In fact, even before the relaxation of the restrictions on group gatherings in mid-February 2021, the local property market had already shown signs of improvement. According to the figures from the Land Registry, the secondary residential property transaction volume for the first two months of the year recorded substantial increase of over 82% compared with the same period in 2020. Developers have become more active and new launches were enthusiastically received.

The Hong Kong property market can be segmented into super luxurious and mass residential sectors, which suit the needs of different groups of buyers. Due to scarcity, super luxurious properties have become more and more popular among those non-local buyers, some of them are even willing to spend lavishly and pay hefty buyer stamp duty for acquiring the super luxurious properties. And such properties are relatively less affected by the economic conditions. Indeed, after underperforming in the past two years, the local luxury sector has also shown signs of recovery in 2021. For instance, a unit of 21 Borrett Road, an upscale residential project, was sold at the record-breaking price of HK$136,000 per square foot, the highest for apartmenttype unit in Asia, and signalled a comeback for the Hong Kong property market. It is estimated that price growth of the super luxurious properties is expected to outperform that of the mass residential market.

Chairman's Statement

Vaccines Prompt Global Economic Recovery – Hong Kong Financial Status Stays Solid

As vaccination schemes are being gradually implemented around the world, the global economy is expected to significantly rebound in the second half of 2021. In addition, loose monetary policies and strong fiscal stimulus of each country will further support the global economic recovery. While inflation fear still instills uncertainty, the market consensus is that the interest rate will stay low for a considerable period of time.

China-US relations have not improved significantly after the US presidential election, which keeps Hong Kong under the shadow of uncertainty and might bring volatility to Hong Kong's trade and financial conditions. Nevertheless, the China-US tension underscores the importance of Hong Kong's role as a bridge between Mainland China and the rest of the world and should not be a cause for excessive concern.

In 2020, with its strong capital raising power, Hong Kong's financial market has attracted a total of 154 companies to list in Hong Kong and raised HK$394.2 billion in aggregate. In particular, the number of newly listed large tech companies shot up. The Group is optimistic about Hong Kong's future prospects and believes the listing boom in Hong Kong will continue in 2021. If borders are reopened this year, the local economy is likely to stage a strong growth, but the progress of the economic recovery would depend on the containment of the pandemic. As the vaccination programme has already been launched in Hong Kong, we have reason to be optimistic that the economic improvements are within sight. In the meantime, the Group is aware that the global political and economic landscape is filled with uncertainty, in addition to the changeable nature of Mainland China's property policies, so the Group will stay vigilant and closely monitor the market development.

Appreciation

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to our board members and staff for their tireless dedication in the midst of the pandemic of the century. I would also like to take this opportunity to convey my appreciation to each of our shareholders and customers for their continued support for the Group. We will keep doing our best to offer quality services, in order to lead the Group to a brighter future.

WONG Kin Yip, Freddie

Chairman

Hong Kong, 30 March 2021

Responded to Challenges with Vigorous Market Evaluation and Agility

2020 was a difficult year for Hong Kong and for the world. Nevertheless, bearing the spirit of tenacity, the Group was able to weather the storm with the Hong Kong people. To cope with the challenges brought by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Group equipped our staff to work-from-home, and kept most of its branches in service and operation.

In the past year, the Group managed to gain ground in the local residential market, especially in the secondary residential property sector, through a series of reform initiatives. The continued shortage in new home supply in Hong Kong drove up the transaction volume in the local secondary residential market, the business of which is expected to become increasingly important to the Group.

The pandemic has led to a new market normal, including the prospect of prolonged low interest rates prompting investment activity and the rising popularity of digital engagement. Therefore, despite a weakened economy, the Group remained active in taking progressive steps to improve its sales operations and technological offerings, in order to enhance its competitiveness.

Personnel Assignment and Operations Adjustment Bore Fruit

In preparation for the anticipated recovery in market sentiment, the Group has made some key personnel assignments at the sales management level in 2020. Immediate improvements were shown in the sales of primary projects located in Kai Tak and Tseung Kwan O, the two districts with ample new home supply.

Although the local economy has not yet fully rebounded, the Group believes that end-users as well as investment demand would stay strong as the low interest rate environment is expected to last. In 2020, the Group made a series of strategic reforms to encourage cross-districts referrals, in order to allow clients from different districts to focus on major residential developments and increase the Group's market share.

Innovated to Embrace the Era of Digitalisation

In 2020, the Group introduced the "Fully Digitised Branch" service concept at the LOHAS Park branch in Tseung Kwan O. It provides digital maps and comprehensive property information through the installation of an innovative touch screen at the storefront. Apart from enhancing customers' experience, it also facilitates the customers to obtain the most up-to-date property information without making any human contacts.

At the same time, the Group continued to develop its online platform. In 2020, the agents of Midland Realty produced over 1,800 short-video clips, and offered virtual property tours to the customers. The market response to this contactless property tour has been strong and the clips reached 20 million views during the year.

In addition to the platform for online virtual property tours, the Group proactively upgraded the functionalities of its mobile application and website, resulting in a significant growth in traffic. Within the year 2020, 150 million visits were recorded across the two platforms and the number of mobile application downloads surged by 50%. The Group's commitment to putting resources in the digital realm was recognised by the Marketing DigiZ Awards, at which the Group won six awards.

Timely Adaptation to Capture Opportunities

The world is ever changing. It is vital that we stay focused on what we can control. The Group is well prepared and is confident to capture more local business opportunities in the future. In recent years, the Group has made good progress towards two strategic priorities, namely, strengthening its foothold in the local secondary market and enhancing its digital engagement. Looking ahead to 2021, the Group will continue to be committed to strengthening our competitive edge.

The market has high hopes on the COVID-19 vaccine rollout. The Group is confident that the strategic steps it has taken amid the pandemic would pay off when the China-Hong Kong border reopens. In order to prepare for a normalisation of the crossborder activities after the border reopens, the Group has set up a new team specialising in the sales of properties located in the Greater Bay Area, so as to seize the opportunities therein.

Strategic Review and Planning

The Group anticipates the property market to heat up further in the second half of 2021, as well as a simultaneous rise in inflation. During the height of the outbreak in Hong Kong in 2020, the Group was successful in obtaining rent concessions at renewal from most of the landlords. However, if the local economy fully recovers following the containment of the pandemic, the Group would have to double its efforts in controlling the relevant rental costs. In addition, the Group will keep striving to raise both market share and operational efficiency.

As Hong Kong and the world remain shrouded by the uncertainties arising from the pandemic, the Group will continue to strive for progress and proactively deal with challenges, and will ride out difficult times with our staff.

We give priority to suppliers who can provide sustainable and socially responsible products and services. Some of our existing suppliers obtained various international certifications relating to environmental management and social responsibility.

As we strive to minimise our environmental impact in our daily operations, we procure environmentally preferable products and services when possible. For instance, we prioritise the use of environmentally-certified paper where possible, including paper certified by the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC). Moreover, we use soy-based ink for our printers to reduce environmental detriments as opposed to the conventional petroleum-based ink. The Group is also taking steps in purchasing bio-degradable trash bags which are designed to decompose quickly and tackle plastic pollution.

Our Community

Our Community Investment

The Group has continuously invested considerable efforts in giving back to the communities in which we operate. We focus on nurturing the youth and promoting environmental protection. In collaboration with various organisations, we strive to create long-term value for our community.

Midland Charitable Foundation was established in 2004. 0.1% of the commission of Midland Realty from every second-hand sales transaction monthly are donated to the Foundation to support charitable organisations for local community development.

To optimise our effort in community investment, we conduct a thorough evaluation after the completion of each community events prior to determining the community event plan for the upcoming year. Our review covers activity objectives, number of beneficiaries, participation frequencies and hours, and the number of employees participated.

We are honoured to have our devotion towards supporting and caring for our community be recognised with the Caring Company Logo by The Hong Kong Council of Social Service for 17 consecutive years.

Supporting the Community amid COVID-19

As the COVID-19 pandemic posed several challenges to individuals and our community, the Group has taken active and prompt actions in supporting those in need. At the beginning of 2020, when protective gears were in high demand, we distributed 2,000 masks for free to vulnerable groups including the elderly, the disabled and medical staff living in Lai Chi Kok. In partnership with Pentecostal Church of Hong Kong, we also sent volunteers to disseminate 5,000 pre-packed masks into the post boxes of the singleton elderly in Ngau Tau Kok.

Nurturing the Youth

The Group recognises the importance of youth development as the younger generation are the leaders of tomorrow. We have provided continuous support to "Project WeCan" for the past seven years, through which disadvantaged students are given opportunities to pursue their studies and future careers. This year, we continued to partner with HKSKH Bishop Hall Secondary School and participated in the "Shape Our Future: WeCan! – Project WeCan Career Exploration Day" in which we sent a human resources professional to shed light on how to prepare for and excel in job interviews. We also provided financial support to the school to enhance the students' learning environment.

In collaboration with The Salvation Army Hong Kong Education and Development Centre, we organised an online "Industry Sharing Seminar and Mock Interview" event for secondary school students in September 2020. In addition to providing participants with a brief introduction to the real estate agency industry, our human resources professional also shared job searching and interview skills and conducted individual online mock interviews for the students, with a view to better preparing them for future career opportunities.

Protecting the Environment

As a creative way to help tackle waste issues while promoting the physical well-being of our employees, the Group organised "Plogging in Yuen Long" in January 2020 which combined jogging and cleaning up the streets that our volunteers ran pass in Yuen Long. Through the collective efforts of the volunteer team, a total of 7 bags of litter was collected during the 4-kilometre course. The event not only helped clean up the community, but it also raised our employees' environmental awareness and further encouraged them to become better stewards towards the environment.

Management Contracts

No contracts concerning the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the business of the Company were entered into or existed during the year.

Major Customers and Suppliers

Sales to the Group's five largest customers accounted for less than 30% of the total revenues of the Group during the year ended 31 December 2020. The Group had no major suppliers due to the nature of the principal activities of the Group.

Related Party Transactions

The significant related party transactions entered into by the Group during the year set out in note 34 to the consolidated financial statements included transactions that constitute connected/continuing connected transactions for which the disclosure requirements under the Listing Rules have been complied with.

Continuing Connected Transactions

The following transactions between certain connected persons (as defined in the Listing Rules) of the Company and the Group were entered into and during the year ongoing for which relevant announcements had been made by the Company in accordance with the Listing Rules.

References are made to (i) the announcement of the Company dated 19 October 2020 in relation to the distribution of an 1. interim dividend by the Company in the form of a distribution in specie of shares in Midland IC&I Limited ("Midland IC&I") (the "Midland Distribution"), (ii) the announcement issued by Midland IC&I and Wealth Builder Holdings Limited ("Wealth Builder") dated 17 November 2020 following the Midland Distribution and (iii) the announcement issued by Midland IC&I and Wealth Builder dated 28 December 2020 in relation to the results of the unconditional mandatory cash offer made by Get Nice Securities Limited on behalf of Wealth Builder for all issued shares of Midland IC&I (the "Offer") other than those already owned or to be acquired by Mr. WONG Kin Yip, Freddie (the Chairman and Executive Director of the Company) and his indirect wholly-owned companies, namely Wealth Builder and Sunluck Services Limited. Following the Midland Distribution and the Offer, Mr. WONG Kin Yip, Freddie, who was directly and indirectly interested in approximately 36.97% of all issued shares in the Company, became (directly and through his indirect wholly-owned companies, Wealth Builder and Sunluck Services Limited) interested in 930,463,428 shares of Midland IC&I (representing approximately 51.54% of all issued shares of Midland IC&I). By virtue of Midland IC&I having become an associate of Mr. WONG Kin Yip, Freddie, Midland IC&I has become a connected person of the Company. Accordingly, a cross referral services agreement (the "Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021)") was made on 8 February 2021 between the Company and Midland IC&I in relation to cross referral services provided between the relevant members of the Group and of Midland IC&I and its subsidiaries (the "Midland IC&I Group") for the period from 16 November 2020 to 15 November 2023, whereby the Group may refer estate agency business in respect of industrial and commercial properties and shops in Hong Kong, Macau and the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") to the relevant members of the Midland IC&I Group from time to time, and the Midland IC&I Group may refer estate agency business in respect of residential properties in Hong Kong, Macau and the PRC to the relevant members of the Group from time to time (the "Cross Referral Transactions"). The Cross Referral Transactions are conducted on a case-by-case basis and on normal commercial terms.

Under the Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021), the proposed annual caps for the referral fees paid/payable by the Group to the Midland IC&I Group for the period from 16 November 2020 to 31 December 2020 and for the year ending 31 December 2021 are HK$10 million and HK$50 million respectively, while the proposed annual caps for the referral fees paid/ payable by the Midland IC&I Group to the Group for the period from 16 November 2020 to 31 December 2020 and for the referral fees paid/ payable by the Midland IC&I Group to the Group for the period from 16 November 2020 to 31 December 2020 and for the year ending 31 December 2021 are HK$15 million and HK$10 million respectively.

The aggregate values of the referral fees paid/payable (i) by the Group to the Midland IC&I Group under the Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021) and (ii) by the Midland IC&I Group to the Group under the Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021) for the period from 16 November 2020 to 31 December 2020 was approximately HK$4.6 million and HK$10 million respectively, which had not exceeded the respective cap value for that period.

Cross Referral Transactions which individually or in aggregate exceed the thresholds for exemption from the circular and shareholders' approval requirements under Rule 14A.76(2) of the Listing Rules, respectively in relation to the receipt or payment of referral fees (the "Exemption Thresholds") for the Company will be subject to and conditional upon the Cross Referral Transactions contemplated under the Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021) and the proposed annual caps for the Company thereof being approved by the Company's independent shareholders in accordance with the Listing Rules. For the avoidance of doubt, Cross Referral Transactions entered into during the term of the Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021) exceeding the Exemption Thresholds for the Company will only take effect when the Company's independent shareholders' approval is obtained.

A special general meeting of the Company will be held on 1 April 2021 to consider and, if thought fit, to approve the Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021), the transactions contemplated thereunder and the proposed annual caps. Details relating to the Cross Referral Services Agreement (2021) and the annual caps were set out in the announcement and circular of the Company dated 8 February 2021 and 15 March 2021 respectively.

2. A tenancy and licence framework agreement was made on 23 October 2019 between the Company and Mr. WONG Kin Yip, Freddie, the Chairman, Executive Director and substantial shareholder of the Company, in relation to the existing and/ or future letting and licensing of the property(ies) in Hong Kong legally and beneficially owned by members of the landlord entities (being Mr. WONG Kin Yip, Freddie and his associates but excluding the Group and, for the avoidance of doubt, Midland IC&I Group, as landlords) to members of the Group (as tenants and/or licensees) for a period of 3 years commencing from 19 September 2019 to 18 September 2022 (both days inclusive). The properties leased/licensed are and will be used as branches for the real estate agency business of the Group, etc. The annual caps for the period from 19 September 2019, the two years ending 31 December 2020 and 2021 and the period from 1 January 2022 to 18 September 2022 are HK$3,500,000, HK$6,300,000, HK$6,900,000 and HK$7,600,000. The total value of right-of-use assets relating to the tenancy agreements/licence agreements entered into by the Group during the year ended 31 December 2020 was approximately HK$5,269,000, which had not exceeded the annual cap for the said year. Details relating to the above transactions and the annual caps were set out in the announcement of the Company dated 23 October 2019.

The Independent Non-Executive Directors have reviewed the continuing connected transactions mentioned above pursuant to Rule 14A.55 of the Listing Rules and confirmed that, the aforesaid continuing connected transactions have been entered into:

- i. in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group;
- ii. on normal commercial terms or better; and
- iii. according to the agreements governing them on terms that are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the shareholders of the Company as a whole.

The Company's auditor was engaged to report on the above continuing connected transactions of the Group in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000 (Revised) "Assurance Engagements Other Than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information", and with reference to Practice Note 740 "Auditor's Letter on Continuing Connected Transactions under the Hong Kong Listing Rules" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The auditor has issued its unqualified report containing its findings and conclusions in respect of the continuing connected transactions disclosed on pages 63 to 64 of this Annual Report in accordance with Rule 14A.56 of the Listing Rules. # Management Discussion and Analysis

Financial Review

Liquidity and financial resources

The Group mainly finances its business operations with its internal resources and loan facilities from banks.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had cash and bank balances of HK$940,608,000 (2019: HK$1,151,688,000).

As at 31 December 2020, the interest-bearing bank borrowings of the Group amounted to HK$228,000,000 (2019: HK$489,000,000) and with maturity profile set out as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Repayable within 1 year	228,000	489,000

As at 31 December 2020, the gearing ratio, which is calculated on the basis of total borrowings over the total equity of the Group, was 20.9% (2019: 36.9%). The liquidity ratio, which represents a ratio of current assets over current liabilities, to reflect the adequacy of the financial resources, was 1.1 (2019: 1.1). The return on equity, which is the ratio of profit/(loss) for the year over the total equity of the Group, was 12.10% (2019: -5.20%).

As at 31 December 2020, the Group has unutilised borrowing facilities amounting to HK$2,513,800,000 (2019: HK$2,201,556,000) from various banks. The borrowing facilities were granted to the Group on a floating rate basis. The Directors will continue to adopt an appropriate financial policy so as to sustain an optimal level of borrowings to meet the Group's funding requirements.

As at 31 December 2020, certain land and buildings and investment properties held by the Group of HK$57,358,000 (2019: HK$58,465,000) and HK$43,820,000 (2019: HK$61,353,000) were pledged to secure banking facilities granted to the Group. Borrowing facilities granted to the Group were also secured, inter alia, by floating charge over certain receivables of the Group with carrying value of approximately HK$2,558,785,000 (2019: HK$1,917,269,000).

The Group's cash and bank balances are denominated in Hong Kong dollars, Renminbi and Macau Pataca and the Group's borrowings are in Hong Kong dollars. No currency hedging tool is used.

On 19 October 2020, the Board declared an interim dividend in the form of distribution in specie of the shares of Midland IC&I Limited ("Midland IC&I shares") held by the Group to the shareholders of the Company in the proportion of 1,700 Midland IC&I shares for every 2,000 issued shares of the Company. A total of 610,976,997 Midland IC&I shares with an aggregate fair value of approximately HK$363,040,000 were recognised as distribution during the year.

After the completion of the distribution in specie in November 2020, the Group ceased to hold any Midland IC&I share. Midland IC&I Group has ceased to be accounted for as associates of the Group in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. As this regard, a loss on disposal of associates of HK$1,555,000 was recognised in this year. Further details of the above transaction were disclosed in the announcement of the Company dated 19 October 2020.

The Group's business has been conducted primarily in Hong Kong and its monetary assets and liabilities are mainly denominated in Hong Kong dollars. The Group is exposed to Renminbi exchange rate risk as the assets and liabilities of the Group's PRC subsidiaries are primarily denominated in Renminbi. Individual companies within the Group have limited foreign currency risk as most of the transactions are denominated in the same currency as the functional currency of the operations in which they relate. The Directors consider that no hedging measure against Renminbi exchange rate exposure is necessary at this stage but will closely monitor its fluctuations.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters identified in our audit are summarised as follows:

- Revenue recognition for property agency fees
- Impairment of trade receivables

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Revenue recognition for property agency fees
Refer to notes 3(t) and 5(a) to the consolidated financial statements for the Directors' disclosures of the related accounting policies, judgements and estimates. For the year ended 31 December 2020, property agency fees amounted to approximately HK$4,959.6 million, representing	We obtained an understanding of management's internal control and assessment process of revenue recognition for property agency fee and assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors.

The entitlement to agency fee income includes an element of	effectiveness of the key management controls, including the relevant information technology systems, over revenue consideration that is variable or contingent on the outcome of future events. Actual agency fee income to be received is dependent upon, among others, the completion of transaction between buyers and sellers, price concession based on customary industry practice and payment plans chosen by the buyers.

Management estimated the amount of property agency fee income to the extent that it is highly probable taking into consideration of the historical recoverable rates and the risk of fallen through and price concession of individual transactions, that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

We focused on this area because the estimation of the variable consideration is subject to high degree of estimation uncertainty. The inherent risk in relation to the assessment on revenue recognition for property agency fees is considered significant because management has made significant and subjective judgements on selection of method and data.

recognition for property agency fees.

We performed retrospective review by comparing previous estimates to actual outcome, and evaluated the outcome of prior period assessment of revenue recognition to assess the effectiveness of management's estimation process.

We tested the underlying data, on a sample basis, for the calculation of the historical recoverable rates.

We tested, on a sample basis, the variable consideration recognised based on the terms set out in the contracts, the completion status of the transaction and other relevant factors. We also took reference to the general market conditions and management's knowledge about individual contracted parties in evaluating the estimation of variable consideration.

Based upon the above procedures performed, we considered that the judgements and estimations made by management on the revenue recognition for property agency fees was supported by available evidence.

Key Audit Matter

Impairment of trade receivables

Refer to notes 3(i), 4(a)(i) and 5(b) to the consolidated financial statements for the Directors' disclosures of the related accounting policies, judgements and estimates.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had gross trade receivables of approximately HK$2,904.1 million against which a provision for impairment of approximately HK$108.2 million was recognised.

The Group applied the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measure lifetime expected credit losses ("ECLs") allowance for all trade receivables. Management identified trade receivables with impairment indicators with reference to their knowledge about the customers, the completion status of related property transactions and the market conditions, and made impairment provision for these trade receivables accordingly. Management grouped the remaining trade receivables with similar credit risk characteristics and ageing profile, and estimated ECLs rates based on historical credit loss rates for different groups and adjusted to reflect the current and forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors that are considered relevant to determine the ability of customers to settle the receivables in the future.

We focused on this area because the estimation of ECLs involved a significant level of judgement by management to determine the use of internal and external data from various sources to establish the historical credit loss experience and to adjust this experience for expected future changes, recognising that these factors are all subject to a certain level of uncertainty. How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

We obtained an understanding of management internal control and impairment assessment process of trade receivables and assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors.

We evaluated and validated the key controls performed by management over the impairment assessment process, in particular those over the identification of impaired receivables and the calculation of provisions according to the lifetime ECLs model.

We performed retrospective review by comparing previous estimates to actual outcome, and evaluated the outcome of prior period assessment of impairment of trade receivables to assess the effectiveness of management's estimation process.

We understood the status of each of the material trade receivables past due as at year end, information about contracted parties and subsequent settlements, if any, through discussion with management.

We tested, on a sample basis, the impairment provision recognised based on the completion status of the transactions, general market conditions and management's knowledge about individual contracted parties.

We performed testing, on a sample basis, of the accuracy of the trade receivables ageing report.

We evaluated management's assessment of the historical credit loss rates by sample checking inputs in respect of the assumptions made, such as historical payment records, correspondence on any disputes or claims with the customers and subsequent settlement records.

We checked the computation of the amount of provision and evaluated the expected future changes in credit risks in management's assessment by sample checking the inputs to the assumptions to external data sources.

Based on the results of the procedures performed, we found management's judgement and assumptions applied in respect of the impairment of trade receivables to be supported by available evidence.

Other Information

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 90 of the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

 Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Cheng Lap Yam.

1 General information

Midland Holdings Limited (the "Company") is a limited liability company incorporated in Bermuda and listed on the main board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange"). The address of its registered office is Clarendon House, 2 Church Street, Hamilton HM 11, Bermuda and its head office and principal place of business in Hong Kong is Rooms 2505-8, 25th Floor, World-Wide House, 19 Des Voeux Road Central, Hong Kong.

The principal activities of the Company and its subsidiaries (together, the "Group") are the provision of property agency services in Hong Kong, the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") and Macau, property leasing, immigration consultancy services and money lending services.

These consolidated financial statements have been approved by the board of directors (the "Board") on 30 March 2021.

2 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance Cap. 622. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of investment properties and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, which are carried at fair values.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements, are disclosed in note 5 below.

(a) New standards, interpretation and amendments effective in 2020

The adoption of the new or revised standards, interpretation and amendments does not have a material impact on the Group's results of operations or financial position.

(b) New standards, interpretation and amendments which are not yet effective

The Group has not early applied the new or revised standards and interpretations that have been issued but not yet effective. The adoption of these new or revised standards and interpretations is not expected to have a material impact on the Group's results of operation or financial position.

3 Summary of significant accounting policies

The significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

(a) Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries made up to 31 December.

(i) Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are de-consolidated from the date that control ceases.

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. On an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, the Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's net assets.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised loss is also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

When the Group ceases to have control, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value at the date when control is lost, with the change in carrying amount recognised in the consolidated income statement. The fair value is the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. It means the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRSs.

(ii) Separate financial statements

In the Company's balance sheet, the investments in subsidiaries are stated at cost less provision for impairment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend income.

(iii) Joint ventures

Investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures depending on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor. The Group has assessed the nature of its joint arrangements and determined them to be joint ventures. Joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method.

Under the equity method of accounting, interests in joint ventures are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses and movements in other comprehensive income. When the Group's share of losses in a joint venture equals or exceeds its interests in the joint ventures (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the joint ventures), the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint ventures.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interests in the joint ventures. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of the joint ventures have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

(iv) Associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence but not control, generally accompanying a shareholding of between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. Under the equity method, the investment is initially recognised at cost, and the carrying amount is increased or decreased to recognise the investor's share of the profit or loss of the investee after the date of acquisition.

If the ownership interest in an associate is reduced but significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

The Group's share of post-acquisition profit or loss is recognised in the consolidated income statement, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income with a corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the investment. When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

The Group determines at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value and recognises the amount adjacent to "share of results of associates" in the consolidated income statement.

Profits and losses resulting from upstream and downstream transactions between the Group and its associate are recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements only to the extent of unrelated investor's interests in the associates. Unrealised losses are eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of associates have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Gains or losses on dilution of equity interest in associates are recognised in the consolidated income statement.

(b) Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The chief operating decision maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive directors of the Company that make strategic decisions.

(c) Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars which is the Company's functional and the Group's presentation currency.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at exchange rates ruling at the balance sheet date of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the consolidated income statement.

Changes in the fair value of monetary securities denominated in foreign currency classified as available-for-sale are analysed between translation differences resulting from changes in the amortised cost of the security and other changes in the carrying amount of the security. Translation differences related to changes in the amortised cost are recognised in the consolidated income statement, and other changes in the carrying amount are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Translation differences on non-monetary financial assets and liabilities such as equities held at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in consolidated income statement as part of the fair value gain or loss. Translation differences on non-monetary financial assets such as equities classified as at fair value through other comprehensive income are included in other comprehensive income.

(iii) Group companies

The results and financial position of all the group entities that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses for each income statement are translated at average exchange rates; and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of the net investment in foreign operations, and of borrowings, are taken to equity. When a foreign operation is partially disposed or sold, exchange differences that were recorded in equity are recognised in the consolidated income statement as part of the gain or loss on sale.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the exchange rate at the balance sheet date.

(d) Property and equipment

Property and equipment is stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the assets.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated income statement during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Leasehold land classified as finance lease commences amortisation from the time when the land interest becomes available for its intended use. Amortisation on leasehold land classified as finance lease and depreciation on other assets are calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their costs or revalued amounts to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Leasehold land	Over the period of the lease
Buildings	50 years
Leasehold improvements	Over the period of the lease
Furniture and fixtures	4 years
Office equipment	4 years
Motor vehicles	4 years

The residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date. An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gain and loss on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount and are recognised within other operating costs, in the consolidated income statement.

(e) Investment properties

Property that is held for long-term rental yield or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Group, is classified as investment property. Investment property comprises land held under operating leases and buildings held under finance leases. Land held under operating leases are classified and accounted for as investment property when the rest of the definition of investment property is met. The operating lease is accounted for as if it were a finance lease.

Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs. After initial recognition, investment property is carried at fair value, representing estimated open market value determined at each reporting date by qualified valuers. The market value of each property is calculated on the discounted net rental income allowing for reversionary potential. Changes in fair values are recognised in the consolidated income statement as part of other income or other operating costs.

Subsequent expenditure is charged to the carrying amount of the property only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the Group and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed in the consolidated income statement during the financial period in which they are incurred.

If an investment property becomes owner-occupied, it is reclassified as property and equipment, and its fair value at the date of reclassification becomes its cost for accounting purposes. Property that is being constructed or developed as investment property is carried at fair value. Where fair value is not reliably determinable, such investment property under construction is measured at cost until either its fair value becomes reliably determinable or construction is completed (whichever is earlier).

If a property becomes an investment property because its use has changed, any difference resulting between the carrying amount and the fair value of this property at the date of transfer is recognised in equity as a revaluation of property and equipment. However, if a fair value gain reverses a previous impairment, the gain is recognised in the consolidated income statement.

(f) Impairment of investments in joint ventures, associates and non-financial assets

Assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Assets that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each balance sheet date.

Impairment testing of the investments in joint ventures or associates is required upon receiving dividends from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary or joint venture in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

3 Summary of significant accounting policies (Continued)

(g) Investments and other financial assets

(i) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income ("OCI") or through profit or loss); and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or OCI. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI").

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(ii) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

(iii) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL"), transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVPL are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

(g) Investments and other financial assets (Continued)

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- amortised cost: assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains/(losses) together with foreign exchange gains and losses. Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.
- FVOCI: assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/(losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in other gains/(losses) and impairment expenses are presented as separate line item in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.
- FVPL: assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVPL is recognised in profit or loss and presented net within other gains/(losses) in the period in which it arises.

Equity instruments

The group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in OCI, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVPL are recognised in other gains/(losses) in the statement of profit or loss as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(g) Investments and other financial assets (Continued)

(iv) Impairment

The group assesses on a forward-looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

(h) Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the consolidated balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(i) Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses the loss allowance for ECL on trade receivables, other receivables, deposits and loan receivables. Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (non-recycling) are not subject to the ECL assessment.

Measurement of ECLs

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses.

ECLs are measured on lifetime basis that these are losses that are expected to result from all possible default events over the expected lives of the items to which the ECL model applies.

Loss allowances for trade receivables and loan receivables are individually assessed when there is objective evidence that they are impaired. For the remaining trade receivables which no objective evidence is available, loss allowances are measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. ECLs are estimated using a provision matrix based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions at the reporting date.

The Group assesses on a forward looking basis the ECL associated with other receivables. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there is a significant increase in credit risk.

(j) Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for services rendered in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less credit loss and provision for impairment.

See note 23 for further information about the Group's accounting for trade receivables and note 4 for a description of the Group's impairment policies.

(k) Loan receivables

Loan receivables are loans to employees and property mortgage loans granted to customers. If collection of loan receivables is expected in one year or less, they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as noncurrent assets. Loan receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

(I) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, cashier orders, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts.

(m) Share capital

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

(n) Trade and other payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Trade and other payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(o) Borrowings

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds, net of transaction costs, and the redemption value is recognised in the consolidated income statement over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the balance sheet date.

(p) Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in the consolidated income statement in the period in which they are incurred.

(q) Taxation

The current taxation charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred taxation is provided, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, the deferred taxation is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred taxation is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

The deferred tax liability in relation to investment property that is measured at fair value is determined assuming the property will be recovered entirely through sale.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Deferred taxation is provided on temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current taxation against current tax liabilities and when the deferred tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

(r) Employee benefits

(i) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the balance sheet date.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity or paternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

(ii) Retirement scheme obligations

Contributions to defined contribution retirement schemes which are available to all employees, calculated at rates specified in the rules of the schemes, are charged to the consolidated income statement when the contributions are payable to the fund.

(iii) Share-based payment

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions

The Group operates a number of equity-settled, share-based compensation plans, under which the entity receives services from employees as consideration for equity instruments (options) of the Group. The fair value of the employee services received in exchange for the grant of the options is recognised as an expense. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted:

- including any market performance conditions (for example, an entity's share price);
- excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions (for example, profitability, sales growth targets and remaining an employee of the entity over a specified time period); and
- including the impact of any non-vesting conditions (for example, the requirement for employees to save or holding shares for a specified period of time).

At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-marketing performance and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in the profit or loss account, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

In addition, in some circumstances employees may provide services in advance of the grant date and therefore the grant date fair value is estimated for the purposes of recognising the expense during the period between service commencement period and grant date.

When the options are exercised, the company issues new shares. The proceeds received net of any directly attributable transaction costs are credited to share capital (and share premium).

Share-based payment transactions among group entities

The grant by the Company of options over its equity instruments to the employees of subsidiary undertakings in the Group is treated as a capital contribution. The fair value of employee services received, measured by reference to the grant date fair value, is recognised over the vesting period as an increase to investment in subsidiary undertakings, with a corresponding credit to equity in the parent entity accounts.

(s) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

When there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

(t) Revenue recognition

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the provision of property agency services, immigration consultancy services, money lending services or the use by others of the Group's assets under leases in the ordinary course of the activities of the Group.

Revenue excludes value added taxes and is after deduction of any trade discounts.

Further details of the Group's revenue and other income recognition policies are as follows:

(i) Agency fee from property agency business

Agency fee from property agency business is recognised when the services are rendered which is generally the time when the transacting parties first come into an agreement.

Revenue is the estimated total consideration, including an estimate of variable consideration, received in exchange for the provision of property agency services rendered.

The estimated amount of variable consideration will be included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable taking into consideration of the risk of fallen through, price concession based on customary industry practice and payment plans chosen by the buyers, that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

(ii) Revenue from immigration consultancy services

Revenue from immigration consultancy services is recognised on a success basis, i.e. when the relevant application for immigration is approved.

(t) Revenue recognition (Continued)

(iii) Income from operating leases

Operating lease rental income is recognised on a straight-line basis.

(iv) Income from web advertising and other services income

Web advertising income and other services income including income from property valuation, other advertising and referral services are recognised when services are rendered.

(v) Interest income from loan receivables and finance income

Interest income from loan receivables and finance income are recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest method.

(u) Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions. Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the profits or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

(v) Leases

The Group leases various properties including offices and shop premises. Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants, but leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and the corresponding liabilities at the dates at which the leased assets are available for use by the Group. Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to consolidated income statement over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices. However, for lease of real estate for which the Group is a lessee, it has elected not to separate lease and non-lease components and instead accounts for these as a single component.

(v) Leases (Continued)

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payment that are based on an index or a rate;
- amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising that option.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be determined, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value in a similar economic environment with similar terms and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group:

- where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received;
- uses a build-up approach that starts with a risk-free interest rate adjusted for credit risk for leases held by the Group, which does not have recent third-party financing; and
- makes adjustments specific to the lease, e.g. term, country, currency and security.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs; and
- restoration costs.

Right-of-use assets are generally amortised over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straightline basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life. While the Group revalues its land and buildings that are presented within property and equipment, it has chosen not to do so for the right-of-use buildings held by the Group.

Payments associated with short-term leases of equipment and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less without a purchase option. Low-value assets comprise IT equipment and small items of office furniture.

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Initial direct costs incurred in obtaining an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the underlying asset and recognised as expense over the lease term on the same basis as lease income. The respective leased assets are included in the balance sheet based on their nature. The Group did not need to make any adjustments to the accounting for assets held as lessor as a result of adopting the new leasing standard.

Lease modification is a change in the scope of a lease, or the consideration for a lease, that was not part of its original terms and conditions. After the commencement date, the Group remeasures the lease liability to reflect any lease modification using the interest rate implicit in the lease for the remainder of the lease term. If that rate cannot be determined, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate at the effective date of the lease modification is used. The Group adjusts the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset for the remeasurement of the lease liability. If the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has already been reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Group recognises any remaining amount of the remeasurement in profit or loss.

(w) Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution is recognised as a liability in the consolidated financial statements in the financial period in which the dividends are approved by the shareholders or directors, as appropriate and no longer at the discretion of the entity.

For distribution of non-cash assets to the owner, the Company measures a liability at the fair value of the non-cash assets to be distributed. In the settlement of the liability, the difference between the fair value of the non-cash assets and their carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

(x) Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group. It can also be a present obligation arising from past events that is not recognised because it is not probable that outflow of economic resources will be required or the amount of obligation cannot be measured reliably.

A contingent liability is not recognised but is disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements. When a change in the probability of an outflow occurs so that outflow is probable, they will then be recognised as a provision.

4 Financial risk management

(a) Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to credit risk, foreign exchange risk, cash flow and fair value interest rate risk and liquidity risk. The overall risk management programme of the Group focuses on the unpredictability of the financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the financial performance of the Group.

(i) Credit risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk in relation to its cash and cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits, loan receivables and trade and other receivables. The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is the carrying amounts of these financial assets.

Risk management

To manage this risk, management has monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, management reviews regularly the recoverable amount of each individual loan receivable and trade receivable by taking into account of the market conditions, customers' profiles and contractual terms to ensure that adequate impairment is made for the irrecoverable amounts.

For loan receivables, the Group mitigates credit risk by credit protection provided by guarantors and by collaterals against loan receivables and interest receivable such as properties located in Hong Kong. Individual risk limits are set based on the value of collaterals provided by customers and internal or external ratings in accordance with limits set by the management.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group's loan receivables and trade receivables are subject to the expected credit loss model. While cash and cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits and other financial assets at amortised cost are also subject to the impairment requirements of HKFRS 9 "Financial Instruments", the identified impairment loss was immaterial.

4 Financial risk management (Continued)

(i) Credit risk (Continued)

Loan receivables

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 general approach to measure expected credit losses for loan receivables.

To measure the expected credit losses, the Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- internal credit rating
- external credit rating (as far as available)
- actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the borrower
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same borrower
- significant changes in the value of the collateral supporting the obligation or in the quality of third-party guarantees or credit enhancements
- significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the borrower, including changes in the payment status of borrowers.

Loan receivables consist of first charge mortgage on real estate in Hong Kong. The loan-to-value ratio, which is calculated as the carrying amount of the loan at the balance sheet date as a percentage of the estimated current market value of collateral, ranges from 22% to 92% as at year end. Valuations are updated on a regular basis and more frequently when market conditions are subject to significant change or where a loan is identified and assessed as impaired.

To measure the expected credit loss, the Group considers the probability of default and fair value of the collateral less cost of disposal and management considers the expected credit loss is close to zero.

(i) Credit risk (Continued)

Trade receivables

The Group's trade receivables have been grouped into categories for shared credit risk characteristics:

- primary properties market transactions
- other transactions

For trade receivables from primary properties market transactions, the counterparties are primarily large corporations and have strong financial position and management considers the credit risk is close to zero.

For trade receivables from other transactions, the counterparties are primarily individuals. When there is an objective evidence that the individual trade receivable is impaired, the loss allowances for these trade receivables is assessed and measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

For the remaining trade receivables from other transactions with no objective evidence available without undue cost to measure the lifetime expected credit loss, the Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measure expected credit losses for these trade receivables collectively which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance.

To measure the expected credit losses, these trade receivables have been grouped based on the days past due.

The expected loss rates are based on the latest completed historical payment profile of sales over a period of 12-month and the corresponding historical credit losses experienced within that period. The historical loss rates are adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors affecting the ability of the customers to settle the receivables, if any.

Trade receivables (Continued)

Movements in the provision for impairment of trade receivables are as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
At 1 January Increase in provision for impairment recognised in profit or loss	96,909	138,710
during the year	27,631	13,423

Exchange differences	2,536	_
At 31 December	108,213	96,909

Trade receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery.

Impairment losses on trade receivables are presented as net impairment losses within operating profit. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the same line item.

Other financial assets at amortised cost

For other financial assets at amortised cost, including deposits and other receivables, management considers that its credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition with reference to the counterparty historical default rate and current financial position. The impairment provision is determined based on the 12-month expected credit losses which is close to zero.

Impairment losses on other financial assets at amortised cost are presented as net impairment losses within operating profit. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the same line item.

(ii) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions, recognised assets and liabilities and net investments in foreign operations. The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy and has not used any forward contracts, currency borrowings or other means to hedge its foreign currency exposure. The Group manages its foreign currency risk by closely monitoring the movement of the foreign currency rates.

The Group has foreign currency transactions, denominated mainly in Renminbi ("RMB") which is different from the functional currency of the transacting entity and accordingly, expose the Group to foreign currency exchange risk.

At the balance sheet date, if HK$ had weakened or strengthened by 5% (2019: 5%) against RMB with all other variables held constant, the Group's profit after taxation would have been approximately HK$11,857,000 lower or higher (2019 loss after taxation: HK$9,194,000 higher or lower) and other comprehensive income would have been approximately HK$17,649,000 (2019: HK$11,769,000) lower or higher.

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises from borrowings. Borrowings obtained at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk which is partially offset by bank deposits held at variable rates.

At the balance sheet date, the interest rate risk of the Group is considered to be insignificant.

(iv) Liquidity risk

The Group maintains its own treasury function (the "Group Finance") to monitor the current and expected liquidity requirements and aims to maintain flexibility by keeping sufficient cash and cash equivalents generated from operations and draw down of borrowings. Cash flow forecast is performed in the operating entities of the Group and aggregated by the Group Finance. The Group Finance monitors rolling forecasts of the Group's liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs while maintaining sufficient head-room on its undrawn facilities (note 29) at all times so that the Group does not breach borrowing limits or covenants (where applicable) on any of its borrowing facilities.

Surplus cash held by the operating entities over and above the balance required for working capital management are transferred to the Group Finance. The Group Finance invests surplus cash in interest bearing time deposits, choosing instruments with appropriate maturities or sufficient liquidity to provide sufficient head-room for the Group to meet the liquidity requirements. At 31 December 2020, the Group held cash and bank balances of HK$940,608,000 (2019: HK$1,151,688,000).

(iv) Liquidity risk (Continued)

The following tables show the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's financial liabilities based on undiscounted cash flows and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay. Specifically, for the bank loan which contains a repayment on demand clause which can be exercised at the banks' sole discretion, the analysis shows the cash outflow based on the earliest period in which the Group can be required to pay, that is if the lenders were to invoke their unconditional rights to call the loan with immediate effect. Balances due within twelve months equal their carrying balances (including both interest and principal) as the impact of discounting is not significant.

(b) Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

The capital structure of the Group consists of equity attributable to the equity holders and borrowings. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group will consider macroeconomic conditions, prevailing borrowing rate in the market and adequacy of cash flows generating from operations and may adjust the amount of dividend paid to shareholders, repurchase of shares from shareholders or raise funding through borrowings as necessary.

The Group monitors capital on the basis of the gearing ratio and the current ratio. The gearing ratio is calculated as total borrowings divided by total equity. The gearing ratios at 31 December 2020 and 2019 were as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Borrowings	228,000	489,000
Total equity	1,089,405	1,324,634
Gearing ratio	20.9%	36.9%

The current ratio of the Group, which represents a ratio of current assets over current liabilities, at 31 December 2020 and 2019 were as follows:

	2020 HK$'000	2019 HK$'000
Current assets	4,199,287	3,810,972
Current liabilities	3,721,364	3,594,575
Current ratio	1.1	1.1

The current ratio of the Group is maintained at a stable level.

(c) Fair value estimation

The carrying amounts of the financial assets of the Group, including cash and cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits, trade and other receivables, loan receivables and financial assets at FVOCI; and financial liabilities including trade and other payables and borrowings approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturities.

The financial instruments are measured in the consolidated balance sheet at fair value, by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- (i) Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1).
- (ii) Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (level 2).
- (iii) Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (level 3).

The following tables present the Group's financial instruments that are measured at fair value:

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the balance sheet date. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined by using valuation techniques, such as quoted market prices or dealer quotes for similar instruments, or discounted cash flow analysis. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

There were no transfers between levels 1, 2 and 3 during the year.

The fair value estimation of investment properties is disclosed in note 18 to the consolidated financial statements.

5 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies, and estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

(a) Revenue recognition

Management reviews sales transactions to determine whether it is probable that future economic benefits arising from the sales transactions would flow to the Group taking into account the variable consideration in the transaction price.

Variable consideration comprises the variable amount of the consideration in exchange for transferring the promised goods or services to a customer that is contingent on the occurrence or non-occurrence of a future event. Under HKFRS 15 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers", the Group is required to estimate the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled from the provision of property agency services. The estimated amount of variable consideration will be included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable taking into consideration of the risk of fallen through and price concession based on customary industry practice, that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

(b) Impairment of financial assets

Management reviews regularly the recoverable amount of each individually significant trade receivable and loan receivable to ensure that adequate impairment is made for the irrecoverable amounts. The measurement of impairment losses under HKFRS 9 requires judgement, in particular, management assesses the recoverable amount of each individually significant trade receivable and loan receivable whether there is objective evidence that the receivable is impaired. This evidence may include observable data indicating that there has been an adverse change in the payment status of the debtors and the local economic conditions that correlate with the potential risk of impairment on the transactions. For the remaining trade receivables, generally not arising from primary properties market transactions and having no objective evidence of impairment, the impairment is assessed based on the latest completed historical payment profile of sales over a period of 12-month and the corresponding historical credit losses experienced within that period.

Management reassesses the provision for impairment at each balance sheet date.

(c) Fair value of investment properties

The fair value of investment properties is determined by using valuation techniques. Details of the judgement and assumptions used in the valuation have been disclosed in note 18 to the consolidated financial statements.

5 Critical accounting estimates and judgements (Continued)

(d) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in several jurisdictions. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. The Group recognises liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred tax assets and liabilities in the period in which such determination is made.

Deferred taxation relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised as management considers it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such differences will impact the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities in the periods in which such estimate is changed.

(e) Lease term

Management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option, or not exercise a termination option. Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated).

The following factors are normally the most relevant:

- If any leasehold improvements are expected to have a significant remaining value, the Group is typically reasonably certain to extend (or not terminate).
- Otherwise, the Group considers other factors including but not limited to the costs and business disruption required to replace the leased asset.

(f) Impairment of right-of-use assets and property and equipment

Internal and external sources of information are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to assess whether there is any indication that right-of-use assets and property and equipment may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the right-of-use assets and other property and equipment is estimated. Changes in facts and circumstances may result in revisions to the conclusion of whether an indication of impairment exists and may revise estimates of recoverable amounts, which would affect profit or loss in future years.

7 Segment information

The chief operating decision-makers have been identified as the executive directors of the Company (the "Executive Directors"). The Executive Directors review the Group's internal reports in order to assess performance and allocate resources. The Executive Directors determine the operating segments based on these reports.

The Executive Directors assess the performance based on the nature of the Group's businesses comprising the property agency businesses for residential, commercial and industrial properties and shops, and other businesses which mainly include property leasing, immigration consultancy services, money lending services and mortgage referral services. The Group's businesses are principally located in Hong Kong, the PRC and Macau.

As at 31 December 2020, valuations were undertaken by Midland Surveyors Limited (2019: Knight Frank Petty Limited), a qualified professional surveyor under the Group with appropriate professional qualifications and recent experience in the valuation of similar properties in the relevant locations. Fair values of investment properties in Hong Kong and the PRC are generally derived using the income capitalisation method. This valuation method is based on the capitalisation of the net income and reversionary income potential by adopting appropriate capitalisation rates, which are derived from analysis of sale transactions and valuer's interpretation of prevailing investor requirements or expectations.

Information about fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs:

		Range of significant unobservable inputs
Location of investment properties	Fair value HK$'000	Prevailing market rent per month	Capitalisation rate
Hong Kong	43,820	HK$35 to HK$107 per sq. ft. (saleable) (2019: HK$39 to HK$100 per sq. ft. (saleable))	3.20% to 4.00% (2019: 3.00% to 4.20%)
The PRC	29,881	RMB173 to RMB1,740 per sq. m. (gross) (2019: RMB180 to RMB1,850 per sq. m. (gross))	5.80% to 6.00% (2019: 5.50% to 6.00%)
Total	73,701

Prevailing market rents are estimated based on qualified valuer's view of recent lettings, within the subject properties and other comparable properties. The higher the rents, the higher the fair value.

Capitalisation rates are estimated by qualified valuer based on the risk profile of the properties being valued. The lower the rates, the higher the fair value.

Investment properties with net book value of HK$43,820,000 (2019: HK$61,353,000) are pledged as security for the Group's borrowing facilities (note 29).

(b) Share options

The Company has adopted a share option scheme on 30 April 2002 (the "2002 Share Option Scheme"). The 2002 Share Option Scheme became effective on 30 April 2002 and had remained in force for a period of ten years from that date and had expired on 29 April 2012. The terms of the 2002 Share Option Scheme for those outstanding share options already granted under the 2002 Share Option Scheme remain in force.

On 23 June 2016, the Company adopted another share option scheme (the "2016 Share Option Scheme"). The 2016 Share Option Scheme became effective on 23 June 2016 and had remained in force for a period of ten years from that date and will expire on 22 June 2026. The purpose of the 2016 Share Option Scheme is to provide the Company with a flexible means of giving incentive to, rewarding, remunerating, compensating and/or providing benefits to, the selected participants, to attract and retain the best quality personnel for the development of the business of the Company and each of its direct or indirect subsidiary, associated company, jointly controlled entity or joint venture (collectively, the "Eligible Group"), to recognise the contributions of the selected participants to the growth of the Eligible Group by rewarding them with opportunities to obtain ownership interest in the Company, and/or to promote the long term success of the Eligible Group by aligning the interests of the selected participants to the shareholders of the Company.

Pursuant to the 2016 Share Option Scheme, the Board may, on or before 22 June 2026, at its discretion, offer to grant share options to any director (including any executive director of the Company), executive, officer or employee (whether full-time or part-time) of each member of the Eligible Group (but excluding each member of the committee appointed by the Board from time to time for the purpose of administration of the 2016 Share Option Scheme), as absolutely determined by the Board in accordance with the terms of the 2016 Share Option Scheme.

The maximum number of shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of all options granted to each participant under the 2016 Share Option Scheme and any other share option schemes of the Company (including those exercised, cancelled and outstanding options) in any 12-month period shall not exceed 1% of the total number of shares of the Company in issue. The maximum number of shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of all options granted under the 2016 Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme(s) of the Company to each participant who is an Independent Non-Executive Director or a substantial shareholder of the Company, or any of their respective associates, in any 12-month period shall not exceed 0.1% of the total number of shares of the Company in issue and the aggregate value based on the closing price of the shares of the Company at the date of each grant shall not exceed HK$5,000,000.

The exercise price shall not be less than the highest of (i) the closing price of the shares of the Company as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the date of grant of the option which must be a business day; (ii) the average closing price of the shares of the Company as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets for the five consecutive business days immediately preceding the date of grant of the option; and (iii) the nominal value of a share of the Company on the date of grant of the option.

In January 2020, 9,174,300 share options were granted to certain directors of the Company under the 2016 Share Option Scheme (no share options were granted during the year ended 31 December 2019). Each option gives the holder the right to subscribe for one ordinary share of the Company. The share options granted will be vested 1 year after the date of grant. The vesting period of these options ends when they become exercisable. A consideration of HK$1 from each of the grantees was received.

The fair value of each share option granted was estimated on the date of grant using the Binomial Model with the following assumptions:

Share price at date of grant	:	HK$1.09
Exercise price	:	HK$1.09
Option life	:	8 years
Expected volatility	:	33.77%
Expected dividend yield	:	0.48%
Risk-free rate	:	1.544%
Exercise multiple	:	2.8x

The expected volatility measured by using the historical volatility of the Company over the most recent period commensurate with the expected life of the share options.

Based on the above assumptions, the estimated fair value of each share option was HK$0.2512. Any changes in the parameters may materially affect the estimation of the fair value of a share option.

For the year ended 31 December 2020, the Group has recognised share-based payment expenses of HK$2,204,000 in the consolidated income statement (2019: nil).
